

Coming This Spring ~ "Springtime in Paris" ~
Southside Virginia Community College Chorus
In Concert
Highlighting French Music
with Harpist, Winifred Garrett
~ April 28 3:00 PM ~
South Hill Presbyterian Church

The SVCC Chorus' Spring Concert will be the April 28, 2019 with Harpist Winifred Garrett of Durham, NC – featuring music by Gabriel Fauré "Cantique de Jean Racine, Op 11" with Harp and a special Harp solo by Claude Debussy accompanied by Carol Henderson on the Piano. "I. Danse Sacrée" from Danses for Harp and Piano (1904). Other chorus music will feature Copland's "Zion's Walls", Dvorak's "Goin' Home", an SSAATTBB a cappella arrangement of "Angel Band" by Stephen Kirchner, and an advanced a cappella selection of "Little David, Play!" with Tenor solo and Diva Quartet by Ken Berg, and a showcase medley for the chorus of the best music from "Les Misérables" as well as famous love songs that will take you to Paris for love in the Springtime! Free admission.

See the Winifred Garrett's link!

<http://www.winifredgarrett.com>

Also, see this informative and amazing video all about the Harp and how it works, by Nancy Allen, principal harpist of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra:

<https://youtu.be/wqVaPZABMTg>

The Southside Virginia Community College Chorus is seeking support through your generous donations to the SVCC Foundation, Attn Mary Jane Elkins, 109 Campus Drive, Alberta, VA 23821 (memo: "SVCC Chorus")

With your generosity, the chorus will be able to continue to offer special concerts which include instrumental ensembles. Next year, we are hoping to perform a major work by Händel or by Fauré. Please help support the acclaimed SVCC Chorus in continuing to provide Southside Virginia with quality choral music at its best!